

Home Energy Analysis Checklist

Save time by gathering the following information before you start completing the What Uses Most questionnaire.

1. Your Home

- Type of home (single-family home/townhouse or apartment/condo)
- Size of home in square feet*
- Number of adults and children who live in the home

Not sure? If you have a home or townhouse, search for your address on your county property appraiser's website, Zillow.com or Realtor.com. If you have an apartment, ask the leasing office.*

2. Heating System (if you are billed for heating)

- Type of heating system: furnace with air vents, boiler with radiators (steam or hot water heat), central heat pump with air vents, electric baseboard heaters, electric space heaters, other
- Fuel your heating system uses: natural gas, electricity, propane, oil, other
- Age of system

3. Cooling System

- Type of cooling system: central air conditioner, central heat pump, room air conditioner, room heat pump, other
- Age of system

4. Water Heater (if you are billed for water heater usage)

- Type of water heater: conventional storage tank, tankless, heat pump, other
- Fuel your heating system uses: natural gas, electricity, solar, other
- Age of water heater

5. Thermostat

- Type of thermostat: manual, programmable, smart or Wi-Fi connected, none
- Average thermostat setting when you're home (both in winter and in summer)

6. Lighting

- Portion of your indoor light bulbs that are energy efficient (like CFLs or LEDs)
- When you use outdoor lights (day, night, rarely, when turned on by motion detector, etc.)

7. Appliances

- Appliances you use in your home: clothes washer, clothes dryer, dishwasher, stand-alone freezer, stove/cooktop, oven, dehumidifier, air purifier, second refrigerator or mini refrigerator
- Average age of appliances
- Type of fuel your oven uses: electricity, natural gas, other
- How often you use your clothes washer, clothes dryer and dishwasher (number of loads per week)

8. Electronics

- Electronics you use in your home: TV, cable box, DVD player, DVR or TiVo, video game console, desktop computer, laptop computer
- Number of hours your TV is on during a typical day